

ASIAN AMERICAN ACTIVISM

AN ACTIVIST-SCHOLAR SYMPOSIUM

Pam Tau Lee, Keynote Speaker

The Struggle to Abolish Environmental Racism:

Asian Radical Imaginings from the Homeland to our Frontlines

Thursday, January 24, 2019, 6 PM, UCSB MultiCultural Center

Asian American Activism Panel

Angelica Cabande, South of Market Community Action Network

Ga Young Chung, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign,
Korean undocumented immigration rights

May Fu, University of San Diego, educational transformation

Soya Jung, Change Lab

Pam Tau Lee, Asian American environmental justice organizer and veteran Asian American Movement activist

Irma Shauf-Bajar, GABRIELA USA

Alex Tom, Chinese Progressive Association

Karen Umemoto, UCLA, activist-scholarship and juvenile justice reform

Eddy Zheng, Asian Prisoner Support Committee

Friday, January 25, 2019, 11 AM - 3 PM, UCSB MultiCultural Center

For updates, livestream, and to participate virtually, visit:

<http://tinyurl.com/APIActivism2019>

For more information, contact: Diane Fujino of UCSB at fujino@ucsb.edu or Robyn Rodriguez of UC Davis at rrodriguez@ucdavis.edu.

Hosted by the UCSB Department of Asian American Studies, UC Davis Department of Asian American Studies, and UCLA Asian American Studies Center. Sponsored by the UC Humanities Research Institute; UC Davis Bulosan Center for Filipino Studies; from UCSB: Center for Black Studies Research, Office of the Dean of Social Sciences, Office of the Associate Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, MultiCultural Center, Global Environmental Justice Project, Interdisciplinary Humanities Center, Nikkei Student Union, and API Task Force; Fund for Santa Barbara, La Casa de la Raza, and Ethnic Studies Now! Santa Barbara.

Commemorating the 50th anniversary of Asian American Studies
UC Santa Barbara, UC Davis, UCLA